

Economic performance: two distinct sources of uncertainty

Gray dots: reference policies with no training-seed uncertainty. Faint dots: individual training-seed means.
Intervals are separate conditional summaries; neither is a joint uncertainty interval.